The Derry Township Board of Supervisors would like to thank State Representative Joe Petrarca for his outstanding dedication and service to Pennsylvania House District 55. For the past 26 years, Derry Township and its residents have benefited tremendously from Joe's commitment to ensure our area received numerous grants.

Over the years, Joe and his staff maintained a steady interest and knowledge of the township's current needs and long-range plans and worked with us to find possible solutions through various state agencies and programs.

His friendly and knowledgeable staff went out of their way to assist residents of Derry Township with much needed help on a daily basis.

We are grateful for everything Representative Petrarca has done for us and the people of our community and we sincerely wish him and his staff nothing but the best.
